They have it is the field accompanied by Director of Institutes M. J. Owen. They have it is the field and in this way have been in touch with people who have never before been in position to attend meetings of this sort.

Everywhere, according to reports received by the department, good crowds have attended the gatherings, and the interest manifested has been good. In most instances the lecturers have been urged to make a second visit, and have been guaranteed larger crowds.

The county seats of Rappahannock, Highland, Grayson, Carroll and other counties, where the Iron horse has not as yet penetrated, have been made the scenes of gatherings of farmers during this trip. In addition, it has been the plan as far as possible, where points on railroads were reached, to touch those regions where institute work was theretofore a novelty.

has been brought within the menns of the average person, due to the initiative and experience of the Hamburg-American Line, who originated plensure cruising 20 years ago. To many it is cheaper than living in a hotel whose cuisine and service are equaled. In addition interesting places are visited, the health is improved and unailoyed rest and enjoyment provided.

The foregoing applies particularly to the HAMBURG-AMERICAN LINE'S cruises, made by specially constructed and equipped twin-screw cruising steamships, offering the highest degree of antety and comfort.

SCHOOL METHOD CHANGED

Is Pupils in Norfolk to Be Graded Actorofiling to Daily Average.

It is with much interest that the Department of Public Instruction has learned of the new method of promotions in the public schools of Norfolk. It is not proposed to aboils it the usual formal examinations for all those pupils who do not make a certain high average in daily oral and written work.

But it is intended to exempt from these examinations all pupils of remaining grades and high schools who reach an average of at least 75 per cent. The arguments in favor of the thank of the statement that it is a better test to have frequent oral or written reviews. Sometimes, it is pointed out, and does not do his best work. Again, it may be that the pupil will have "cramed" along just the line in which he finds it difficult to keep up the work.

Another difficulty with the examination she he inds and studies supposed to flower than the pupil will have "cramed" along just the line in which he finds it difficult to keep up the work.

Another difficulty with the examination which is not deserved, puttling him in a class in which he finds it difficult to keep up the work.

Another difficulty with the examination which is not deserved, puttling him in a class in which he finds it difficult to keep up the work.

Another difficulty with the examination which is sent back for too long a time. Still further, it is found difficult to keep up the work with the great of damage suits in prospect, the Chancery Court of the city Officiant of the occasion.

For these reasons it is deemed best to advance the child on the daily average.
